

RADICALIZATION IN FINLAND

RADICALIZATION IN FINLAND

- In Finland the radicalization is nowhere near as bad as in some other countries e.g. England or USA. They do still have a lot of problems with far-right groups who wants no immigrants

NORDIC RESISTANCE MOVEMENT

It's a group in the north of Europe. Is a far-right and neo-nazistisk group, that primarily focuses on immigrants and homosexuals. Their radicalization tactic they use is propaganda and plant stickers and posters around the country

SOLDIER OF ODIN FINLAND

Soldier of Odin is an anti-immigrant group founded in Finland in 2015. The group was established as a response to the immigrant crises. The group has around 600 members in Finland. They use Facebook as their main way to get new members

ISLAMIC PROPAGANDA

Islamic terror groups recruit young Finnish people. They in most cases take advantage of young Muslims who feel outside of society. It happens commonly in prisons.

TERROR IN FINLAND

August 18, 2017 (Turku Stabbings: Finland's First Terror Attack).

December 8, 2015: Finnish police arrest twin Iraqi brothers suspected of previously fighting for ISIS in Iraq
October 11, 2002: Seven people are killed and 166 injured in a bomb attack at the Myyrmanni shopping mall.

PREVENTION OF RADICALIZATION

The one who is prevention the radicalization is the police, school teachers, social workers, youth workers and religious communities. There is a big focus on the children, youth and prisoners. They have made campaigns and groups to prevent radicalization.

Ministry of the Interior
Finland